

Seminar website

<http://cter.edu.pl/en/cter-seminar-2017>

Event

The Consortium for Translation Education Research (CTER) is pleased to announce the second workshop entitled “CTER Training Seminar for Translation Teachers”, which – with the endorsement of the European Society for Translation Studies (EST) – follows the first Seminar organised in Kraków in 2015, and will be held at the Jagiellonian University in Kraków on 26th-30th June 2017 (Monday-Friday).

The goal of the Seminar is to expand pedagogical and translation knowledge of its Participants and provide teaching practice. It is predominantly addressed to translation teachers but also Translation Studies researchers and doctoral students interested in didactic and pedagogical issues.

The main topic of 2017 Seminar is: “Professionalising Translator Education”

Seminar leaders

The seminar sessions will be run by:

Maureen Ehrensberger-Dow, Professor of Translation Studies in the Institute of Translation and Interpreting at the Zurich University of Applied Sciences in Switzerland.

Gary Massey, Director of the Institute of Translation and Interpreting at the Zurich University of Applied Sciences and past head of its MA in Applied Linguistics and undergraduate degree programmes in translation.

Anthony Pym, Professor of Translation Studies at the University of Melbourne and Professor of Translation and Intercultural Studies at Universitat Rovira i Virgili in Spain.

Christina Schäffner, Professor Emerita at Aston University, Birmingham.

Schedule and topics

Monday and Tuesday:
Maureen Ehrensberger-Dow and Gary Massey's seminar:	Educating students for the workplace: Teaching translation processes and ergonomics
Wednesday:
Anthony Pym's seminar:	Teaching translation and AVT technologies
Thursday:
Christina Schäffner's seminar:	Developing Translation Service Provision competence: challenges for teaching
Friday:
Maria Piotrowska and Mariusz Marczak's seminar:	Professionalising the classroom - (e-)learning scripts and scenarios

Fees

The regular seminar fee is 1700 PLN (390 EUR) and the reduced fee for EST members is 1550 PLN (350 EUR), payable by 20th May, 2017. Both fees cover:

- participation in the seminar
- seminar materials
- drinks and refreshments served in coffee breaks
- official seminar lunch
- official seminar dinner

Venue

The seminar sessions will be held at Jagiellonian University's Auditorium Maximum in Cracow, Poland.

Board and accommodation

As it was the case at the CTER - EST First Training Seminar for Translation Teachers in 2015, Participants will need to arrange for their own daily meals and accommodation. Recommended accommodation options are available on the seminar website.

Entrance requirements

The seminar is a BYOD (Bring Your Own Device) event, so Participants will need to bring a laptop with wi-fi connectivity to be able to take part in the sessions.

Language

All seminar activities are conducted in English. In practical activities, Participants may use their target languages although no specific language pairs competence is requested.

Registration

Participants can register through an online form, and registration closes 30th April, 2017. The number of Seminar Participants is limited and the "first-come first-served" principle will be used for admissions.

Contact: For details concerning the seminar, please contact Dr Mariusz Marczak (Jagiellonian University in Kraków) at cterseminar2017@gmail.com.